

Stan Lee's POW! Entertainment to Make an Announcement on Collaboration with Director Hiroshi Nagahama at Comikaze Expo

THE REFLECTION Project to Be First Developed for Japanese TV Series

LOS ANGELES, October 26, 2015 — Stan Lee and POW! Entertainment are set to make an announcement about their collaboration with Japanese award-winning anime director, Hiroshi Nagahama. Nagahama, alongside Stan Lee and POW!, will expand further on the project on the main stage at Comikaze Expo at Los Angeles Convention Center at 3:30pm this Friday, Oct. 30, 2015.

Hiroshi Nagahama is best known for being the director of the highly acclaimed animation Mushishi. The series has won numerous awards, and Nagahama won the Animation Kobe Individual Award for his directing. His other works include TV animation series Detroit Metal City and a humanoid persona Hatsune Miku's music videos "Downloader" and "Chime".

"It was my dream to work with Stan." Nagahama said. "I am very much looking forward to bringing out our original creation to the world together with him."

"Wow! What a treat it has been to be a part of this amazing collaboration!" Lee stated. "Director Nagahama is quite talented, and I am excited to work with him to create such an out-of-this-world animation. Fans in Japan and around the globe will be thrilled to see a series unlike anything before."

THE REFLECTION is a collaboration between Japanese animation production company Studio DEEN and Stan Lee's POW! Entertainment. The show will be developed first for Japanese Television and will then expand internationally.
